EARTH 2008
CALIFORNIA RED WINE

Shanghaied for fifty years on the east coast by the game of baseball, Bill "Spaceman" Lee – 6th generation Californian and prodigal son has returned to his roots by making a monstrous red wine, like that which has run through his ancestors' veins and vines since the 1800's.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this wine will be donated to the Red Sox Foundation to support their Red Sox Scholars and inner city youth baseball programs, both serving at risk children and teens. For more information, visit www.redsoxfoundation.org

This wine will knock your Sox off!
